

Registration for eBooksUSA (sponsored by the U.S. Embassy Berlin)

You will need an active library card from the DAI library Nuremberg to borrow titles from eBooksUSA. You can obtain a library card at our library, just bring in a valid identification card or passport with official proof of residence; after paying the annual fee of 15 €, the card will be valid for one year. The library card is free for members of the DAI-Förderverein. If you cannot come to our place, please follow these steps:

1. Fill out the registration form (see below).

(Your date of birth, in combination with your library card number, will be your login for the library loan)

2. Copy the front and back of your passport together with your registration certificate.

3. If you are a student, copy your certificate of enrollment.

4. Send the registration form, the copy of your ID and if applicable the certificate of enrollment by mail or by fax (NOT by email) to the DAI Nuremberg.

5. Transfer the library fee in the amount of 15 € to the DAI mentioning as reason for payment Bibliotheksausweis and your full name.

After the payment goes through, you will receive your library card by mail and your access to eBooksUSA will be activated.
